Applying family culinary secrets and experience in satisfying hosts of indigenous and foreign customers of every nationality in over three generations of service developed the exceptional cuisine of Nam-Viet Restaurant. French and Southern Mekong Delta flavors and exceptionally fine quality of ingredients are evident in our very own "Can-Tho-nese" style cooking. Can Tho, Vietnam a lush, bountiful, bustling, tropical area of the southernmost part of Vietnam, is frequently referred to as the "Bread Basket of Southeast Asia."

The demands of its people for high energy, non - filling, non-fattening nourishment to sustain them through a tropical workday resulted in the evolution of wholesome, savory culinary dishes of unique distinction, now finding great appeal and high favor in Western diets. We hope you enjoy and thank you for choosing Nam-Viet for your dining experience.

Actual food times may vary. Certain dishes may take less preparation times than others. Please let your server know if time is of a constraint to you, and he or she will help find the best possible dish in the time that you have allotted.

We try to provide the best accommodations that we can. Please be advised that Vietnamese cuisine features an abundant variety of spices and seasonings that may not be well suited to your dietary needs. Please alert your waiter to any food allergies that you may have with regards to certain products, peanuts, spices, dairy, etc.
